The Wisconsin Waterfowl Association is dedicated to the conservation of Wisconsin's waterfowl and wetland resources.

Habitat Program

Our field restoration team is a leader in wetland and upland restoration through our historic-ecosystem based technique, which has received international attention and acceptance. Our top priority remains the restoration of Wisconsin's wild-life habitat, and to that end, we have restored thousands of project acres, throughout the state. We are also developing a long-term project in Abrams, WI to provide additional access for disabled hunters and other users.

Legislation

Our organizations has been a leader in working with the state Legislature to find solutions to the complex problems associat-ed with waterfowl and wetlands issues. One of the most im-portant of these is access to places to hunt and fish. In recent years, our staff has helped guide the drafting of the rules for use of the powerful Knowles-Nelson Stewardship Fund mon-ies, ensuring that properties acquired with borrowed monies on behalf of the taxpayers, are appropriately open to a wide variety of uses, including fishing and hunting. We've also helped stave off an attempted re-allocation of state waterfowl stamp funds, to other purposes.

Education

WWA and its volunteers are active in many outdoor education outreach efforts. WWA was among a select group of four conservation groups in the state who were accepted into a 2011 test program designed to help expand participation in the WDNR Learn to Hunt program. WWA has been a leader in this program in the past, hosting the first ever "Learn to Field-Hunt Geese" program, and during the test program we were able to double the amount of WDNR Learn to Hunt water-fowl volunteer mentor teams/events. Our volunteer chapters do many other youth-related works in their respective areas of the state, including duck & goose-banding, invasive species collections, waterfowl education days, duck & goose calling instruction, and waterfowl identification instruction. Many of our local volunteer leaders are active in hunter safety programs as well, teaching the basics of being a safe, ethical, and respon-sible outdoors person.
